Additional information:

- (1) Scheme responsible for the protection of your deposit Your credit institution is part of an Institutional Protection Scheme officially recognised as a Deposit Guarantee Scheme. This means that all institutions that are members of this scheme mutually support each other in order to avoid insolvency. If insolvency should occur, your deposits would be repaid up to EUR 100 000.
- (2) General limit of protection If a deposit is unavailable because a credit institution is unable to meet its financial obligations, depositors are repaid by a Deposit Guarantee Scheme. This repayment covers at maximum EUR 100 000 per credit institution. This means that all deposits at the same credit institution are added up in order to determine the coverage level. If, for instance a depositor holds a savings account with EUR 90 000 and a current account with EUR 20 000, he or she will only be repaid EUR 100 000.
- (3) Limit of protection for joint accounts In case of joint accounts, the limit of EUR 100 000 applies to each depositor. However, deposits in an account to which two or more persons are entitled as members of a business partnership, association or grouping of a similar nature, without legal personality, are aggregated and treated as if made by a single depositor for the purpose of calculating the limit of EUR 100 000.

In some cases such as a) deposits deriving from real estate transactions relating to private residential properties; b) deposits that serve social purposes, as determined by law and; c) deposits resulting from the payment of insurance benefits or compensations for damages resulting from the practice of a crime or from a wrongful conviction and for a period of one year from the date the amount was credited in the respective account, in accordance with article 166 (2) of the Legal Framework for Credit Institutions and Financial Companies, approved by Decree-Law 298/92 of 31 December, deposits above €100,000 are guaranteed. More information can be obtained under www.fgd.pt.
