What are my obligations?

The Insured Person has the duty to state accurately all circumstances that they know and should reasonably know as significant for risk assessment purposes.

The Insured Person shall provide all information regarding the identification of any designated beneficiaries.

If the Insured Person intends to extend the policy to locations other than those referred to in the General and Special Conditions of the policy, they shall notify the Insurer in advance of the commencement of any such travel.

The Insured Person has the duty to pay the premium on the dates and conditions set out in the policy.

The Insured Person must notify the Insurer within eight days of the event of a claim.

The Insured Person shall submit all documents referred to in the General and Special Conditions of the Policy within 60 days of the occurrence of a claim.

Communications by the Policyholder, Insured Person and the Beneficiary or the Insurer shall be deemed valid and fully effective if made in Portuguese or when written in a foreign language, and must be accompanied by a duly sworn translation.

In the event of a critical illness, the Policyholder, Insured Person or Beneficiaries are obliged to provide the Insurer with all the information set out in the General and Special Conditions within 180 days of the date from which the Critical Illness has been confirmed.

The Insured Person who temporarily sets up residence outside Portugal must designate an address in Portuguese territory for the purposes of this contract.

When and how shall I pay?

The premium will be recalculated at the beginning of each annuity or when there is a change in the warranties, such as the actuarial age of the Insured Person(s) at the beginning of the respective annuity, the coverage and the insured capital. The annual premium may be paid in monthly, quarterly or half-annual installments of 4%, 3% or 2%, respectively. The 1st payment shall include the sum of € 5.00, in addition to the Policy cost. For changes at the customer's request, a fee for issuing the corresponding Additional Minutes currently set at € 5.00 shall apply. Any applicable legal fees will be added to these amounts.

When does the coverage commence and end?

The contract commences at midnight on the day the Insurer accepts the risk, unless another commencement date is agreed and subject to the payment of the premium or any installment due. The insurance contract is valid from its start date until the end of that calendar year, being automatically renewed for extended periods of one year, if not terminated. This is until the Insured Person reaches the actuarial age of 80 for Death coverage or the actuarial age of 67 for other types of coverage on the contract renewal date.

How can I terminate the contract?

For contracts signed for one year and subsequent years, you may terminate the contract by notifying the Insurer of your intention 30 days in advance of the date of extension of the contract, by registered mail or by any other means as long as it is in written form.

The parties can terminate the contract at any time, in case of a just cause.

The Policyholder, being an individual, can terminate the contract with a duration of six months or more, without claiming any just cause, communicating this intention to the Insurer within 30 days from the date the policy is received. After the termination of the contract, the Individual Certificates and any additional documents shall not produce any effect and their reinstatement shall not be allowed.
